After 8 years of outstanding Leadership and Service the current Executive Director of Lutheran Education Queensland, Mrs Sue Kloeden has indicated that she will retire at the end of 2014. The staff and students of Queensland Lutheran Schools and Services thank Mrs Kloeden sincerely for her selfless, dedicated leadership.

The Council for Lutheran Education Queensland (CLEQ) now invites applications for the role of Executive Director Lutheran Education Queensland, commencing January 2015. The Lutheran Church of Australia, Queensland District (LCAQD) operates 27 schools and some 57 early childhood services, providing quality Christ-centred education every day to over 20,000 students. Lutheran Education Queensland and its schools and services are well positioned and are at an exciting time in their development. CLEQ seeks to appoint someone with the vision, expertise and drive to provide exceptional leadership to build on the fine tradition of Lutheran Education in this state.
